✚ Christmas Football

It's Christmas Eve, 1914. The First World War is raging, and the trenches on the western front are filled with miserable men. The Germans soldiers are facing off against the British soldiers. Death, suffering, violence, and hatred reign. But then something remarkable happens. A British soldier, Private Albert Moran of the 2nd Queens Regiment, recalled how the silence of the frosty night was suddenly broken, not by artillery fire, but by a song. Some German soldiers were singing "Silent Night." Moran described how the British waited for them to finish, and then began to sing "O Come, All Ye Faithful" in English. The Germans listened, and then began to sing the same song in Latin. Private Moran said it was deeply moving to hear enemies singing the same song to Christ in different languages. Remember those words from the prophet Micah: "He will be peace." Then on Christmas day both sides declared an impromptu ceasefire, and Germans and British gather together to wish each other a Merry Christmas. Some of them hugged each other. Some exchanged food. One British soldier even gave a haircut to a shaggy German soldier. Later that day a group organised a football game in no-man's land. Men who had been at each other's throats 24 hours before were playing and laughing and wishing each other a Merry Christmas. "He will be peace." The celebration of Christ's birth was enough to bring peace to those men.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
(All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

BLESSING BEFORE A CHRISTMAS STABLE

Lord Jesus, as we kneel before your manger in adoration, let our first Christmas words be: thank you. Thank you, Gift of the Father, for coming to save us from my sins. Thank you for coming as one like ourselves to save us from ourselves. You come as a Baby because babies are irresistible and adorable. You come as a baby because you want our first impression of God Incarnate to be that of one who does not judge. May we love you always, at every moment, with all our hearts, souls, minds, and strength. Newborn Saviour, the very silence of your Incarnation proclaims that the answer to the misery, the strife, and the meaninglessness we often experience in life cannot be found within us. You alone are the Answer. Word become flesh; you make your dwelling among us. Come and live your life in us. Fill us with your truth, your strength, your fortitude, your purity, your gentleness, your generosity, your wisdom, your heart, and your grace. O Emmanuel, may we make of our lives a total gift of self. This Christmas we renew our trust in God's goodness, compassion, and providence. May your Presence, Prince of Peace, bless the world with peace, the poor with care and prosperity, the despairing with hope and confidence, the grieving with comfort and gladness, the oppressed with freedom and deliverance, the suffering with solace and relief. Loving Jesus, you are the only real joy of every human heart. We place all our trust in you. Jesus, Son of Mary, may we love you in union with the holy Mother of God, so that the witness of our lives may shine like the star that leads the Wise Men to your manger. We ask all this with great confidence on this Blessed Feast of Christmas. Amen.

Thank you for all the gifts.

Father Duncan, Canon Matt and Parish Staff would like to sincerely thank you for all the cards and gifts they have received from Parishioners this Christmas. It is very much appreciated. God bless your thoughtfulness, support and generosity.
